- Exchange of academic information and materials
- Joint research activities and publications
- Participation in conferences and academic meetings
- Articulation agreement and joint programmes that give credit towards degree for courses taken at the partner university
- Other agreed academic exchanges and co-operation programmes

II.

This MOU will be identified as the parent document of any abovementioned future agreement(s) executed between the parties. Future agreements concerning any program will provide details concerning the specific commitments made by each party and will not become effective until they have been reduced to writing and executed by the duly authorised representatives of both parties. The scope of the activities under this MOU and any under any specific agreements executed between the parties shall be determined by the funds regularly available at both institutions for the types of collaboration undertaken. Except as may be stipulated in any specific agreement, each institution shall be responsible for expenses incurred by its employees under this MOU and any other agreements executed between the parties.

III.

Vietnam National University Ho Chi Minh City – University of Science and the University of Tasmania agree to designate the following individuals or such other persons notified by that party to oversee and facilitate implementation of this MOU.

University of Tasmania

Prof. Andrew Fischer

Senior Lecturer, Institute for Marine and Antarctic Studies

Vietnam National University Ho Chi Minh City - University of Science

Dr. Vo Hong Hai

Deputy Head, Office of International relations; and

Prof. Dr. Vo Luong Hong Phuoc

Head, Department of Oceanology, Meteorology and Hydrology

The parties agree to ensure that the above-named will:

- promote academic collaboration at faculty levels for research and study;
- act as principal contacts and coordinate all activities within their institutions;
- distribute to each institution information about the faculty, facilities, research, publications, library materials and educational resources of the other institution; and
- periodically review and evaluate past activities and to explore new ideas for future agreements.

IV.

Upon signature by each institution, this MOU shall remain in effect for three years from final signature or until terminated by either institution. Such termination by one institution shall be effected by giving the other institution at least six (6) months advance written notice of its intention to terminate. Termination shall be without penalty. If this MOU is validly terminated, neither institution shall be liable to reimburse each other for any monetary or other losses that may result.

The intention of the parties is that the terms of this MOU are not enforceable in a court of law. Further, nothing in this MOU binds either of the parties to enter into any future agreements in relation to its subject matter, if they consider that entering into such agreements would be detrimental to their interests.

Nothing in this MOU constitutes the parties as partners, agents or employees of the other and they expressly deny the existence of such a relationship.
